

Extra Credit for Photography

Your images could be used in lectures, on websites, and for recruiting new students.

All extra credit is due on or before the final exam.
Extra credit must be complete (i.e. follow directions extremely carefully).
Late submissions will not receive credit.

Extra Credit on Your Final Grade:

Supply photographs of class activities.
Depending on picture content and quality, you will get 0.5-5.0 points added to your final grade. This extra credit is only for you.

To get credit for the pictures, you must

- a) Name each picture this way: YourNameYYYYMMDD_description (e.g. CaraLinBridgman20160617_Karen&Snake.jpg).
Name must include names of people featured in image!
- b) Complete the release form on next page (you may sign in English and Chinese).
- c) Obtain signed permission of anyone pictured if that person can be identified. These people must say it is ok for the picture to be used.

Note: one photograph could require several pages of signatures, especially if it is a group photo.

Extra Credit on Your Group Grade:

Supply photographs of your project, project activities, and project results.
This can include you and your group.

Depending on picture content and quality, you will get 0.5-15.0 points added to your group project's final grade. This extra credit is for everyone in your group.

To get credit for the pictures, you must
